You're an Innovator!

Discovering what you love and what your talents are means you can make choices and set goals that suit you. Once you know what your goals are you can figure out the best way to achieve them. Let's take a better look at what it means to be an innovator.

Being an innovator means you think differently to others. You look at life in a whole new way, and you can see possibilities where others might not.

As an Innovator, you are:

- Able to live in the moment and truly enjoy life
- Fast-paced and passionate
- Able to adapt to any situation
- Ready to make quick, deliberate decisions
- Fascinated by new people and situations
- Driven by adventure

You like work that lets you be yourself, have fun and experience new and exciting things. If you use your natural drive for adventure and fun in your job search, you're halfway there.

Figure out a goal that matches you and create the stepping stones to getting there. This could mean getting other work that will lead to a job you'd like to do, brainstorming with people to find new options or touching up your resume to show the kind of fun person you are.

Your adaptable, fun-loving attitude is the most important tool you have as an innovator! Use it to your advantage.
